

EGREMONT HISTORICAL COMMISSION
AGENDA
Saturday April 1 , 2017
10am
2 Buttonball Lane - Archives - 2nd floor

Outreach programs for 2017 under discussion were again discussed but no firm up dates for any events were arrived at. Since the Town's Birthday party has shifted venues and will expand into a support for the new Meeting House, the talks by Gregg Siter, No. Eg. on August 26th and Nic Cooper, So. Eg. on August 27th are postponed until another time. Mailers by Elliott Snyder are still under discussion. Rebecca Turner has been dealing with Neil Larson on the MACRIS update. Mr. Larson's responses are SLOW in coming.

The South Egremont Congregational Church is up for sale and a group of citizens in attempting to purchase it. The Commission will observe, but as a government body, it is only as an advisory, as it cannot commit any town position without town input.

Bill and LYnn Wood spoke on the Native American meeting. A speaker : Doug Harris, Preservationist for Memorial Landscapes, for the Narragansett Indian Tribal Historic Preservation Office will speak on May 13th. The Commission has decided that the initiative is not local, and the costs too steep for our budgets.
